

Appendix: Company Profile

Company Framework

HONMAR was founded in September 2021 in Hong Kong SAR. We focus on advancing hemp products for high quality TCM therapeutics and consumables in APAC and the World.

HONMAR provides leading research and development, international distribution and retail services for products that is safe and highly effective under the endorsement of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST).

Team Background

Our founding team and researchers are from global renowned universities and in association with the top R&D facilities like HKSTP, Cyberport and distribution network across Hong Kong and GBA region.

Our advisory board consists of reputable scientists in the field of biotechnology, chair professor of Life Science and Head of Entrepreneurship in the HKUST.

Progress Highlights

Product Pipelines: Health and Medical Supplements, Beauty and Skincare with advance hemp infusion to be launched in 2024. We also have various technology pipelines currently under development.

Distribution Network: Concept Kiosk in D2place and theBASE, with proposed extensive F&B retail distribution network and vending machines across Hong Kong SAR for sales of retail products has been set up by 2023.

Our Advantages

